A rare opportunity to purchase two semi detached Federation residences on one title, these twin properties would suit multi-generational families looking to live close together, professionals seeking additional income or astute investors. Immensely private and tranquil, these three bedroom homes offer bright northerly aspects, spacious interiors and practical flow to enclosed level lawns ideal for children and pets. Almost identical, they both balance character features with contemporary comfort and offer wide scope to enhance or renovate (STCA) to add even further value. Superbly located in a tightly-held street in a quiet corner of the suburb, they're mere footsteps from Chatswood's cosmopolitan shopping, dining and transport options.
